

In these terrible times, more than ever, free speech must be protected and encouraged.

I ask you to stand against the further monopolization of information which gravely endangers democracy itself.

Thank you for your time and consideration.